MBA in Leadership and Management- Lynn University, Florida USA

Born in a modest, liberal, and educated household, I am constantly in the virtues of knowledge and diligence, and above all, I have a compassionate outlook towards the world. I believe this world has started growing with the business, and it shall proceed until it ends. There may come several changes, modifications, science and transformations, one may always amplify something new in the old, but one can never diminish the old. The business has been history, and Business is the future. I learned long ago that there is no shortcut to victory. Persistence, commitment, and courage are my best pals. I have constantly worked hard to continue my journey and opted for a BA in English Honors Programme.

My BA degree has benefited me to infer and enhance my ability to respond to and read a spectrum of dramas, novels and other literary genres. With BA (Hons) English, I have gained in-depth knowledge of social, political & literature considerations in the modern era. Literary, cultural variety, rational thought, and persuasive communication have entrenched me. Apart from this, in my subsequent years of education, I have constantly been captivated by the economic improvements in the world. My eagerness to know about the marketing, monetary and management visions got to me. Already being a book reader, I've developed the habit of reading various kinds of books over these years, which has drastically assisted me in understanding the world scenario and has kept me updated with recent affairs.

Being aware of how much professional experience matters and to step in further, I started as an intern at New Vision Digital for tenure of {Duration}. I worked on a live project while performing CRUD operations using Codeigniter and MYSQL. Later as a freelancer Web Developer, I was asked to work at Mentoring N More. I learned quite a lot and created various functional and educational websites, which benefited and impressed my boss and clients. Finally, after intense zeal, I got selected by the renowned company India map Consulting Pvt. Ltd. as a full-time Web Developer. My role included developing the front end of websites using technologies like HTML, CSS and BOOTSTRAP. I have taken tremendous passion in my work and have delivered more than 15 websites to the company's clients. I have done it all and unfolded my wings.

One of the incidents during my work at {Company Name} assured me that I fit perfectly for taking up Management as Masters and as a career. Our project manager was on leave, and I, being company's senior employee, handled 7-8 members, including developers, designers and testers. I was responsible for finishing the given project in time with quality which I did & impressed the CEO & the client. Interacting with people, listening, understanding & being a part of technology, I've matured and equipped myself with bona fide aptitudes. I now strive to successfully create insights into corporate work and management ethics while handling essential clients and improve my business advancement techniques with an MBA in Leadership and Management.

Not only in academics or professional backgrounds, but I have also stood out in specific projects linked below, {Project Name} and considerable more. Presently, with all my knowledge, achievement, and understanding, I wish to learn things more systematically, in a detailed manner, and constructively in the domain of Management. My only dream is to master the business and management I now adore the most. There are plenty of ways to feel fulfilled, but a MBA in Leadership and Management is the best alternative. I am sure of doing MBA in Leadership and Management with miscellaneous acquaintances and perceptions. With the degree, I can efficiently utilize my capabilities towards the achievement of organizational goals as well as my personal growth.
